

Coming soon: UNESCO's online forum on Inclusive Education

- UNESCO/Roger Dominique
- Young learners in Ethiopia

UNESCO is organizing an online discussion forum from 1-30 April 2008 on the theme of "Quality Education to End Exclusion".

Sign up now! The Organization is holding the month-long forum in support of Global Action Week 2008 (21-27 April). Quality and inclusion are key factors in attaining Education for All, UNESCO's top priority. A session of the "World's Biggest Lesson" with UNESCO's Director-General; a round table on quality and inclusion and the launch of a DVD related to the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities are among the events planned at UNESCO headquarters on 23 April during Global Action Week.

UNESCO is mobilizing its stakeholders for this annual initiative to remind governments of their promise to achieve Education for All by 2015. Global Action Week is organized by the Global Campaign for Education (GCE), a UNESCO partner.

Visit their website at: <http://en.unesco.org/themes/education-21st-century>